THE NEW MEN'S SHOP

G Street, Two Doors East of Eleventh

"THE SHIRT SALE"

Sales may come and sales may go, but this little new Men's Shop will be credited with "the Shirt Sale" of 1914. On Saturday 500 dozen shirts were here—$1.00 to $3.00 values for 69c. On Monday only the $1.00 to $2.00 values remained. Today probably few but $1.00 shirts will be here—at 69c. Please note the moral—look in your paper every morning for the new Men's Shop announcement and either call or phone Main 8780 as soon after breakfast as possible.

VILLA OFF FOR FRONT TODAY.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald.

Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, June 15.—The last of Gen. Villa's army to get away for the Zaca area left Torreon today.

Villa and his staff probably will leave for the front tomorrow, though this was not definitely reported.

Reports from Gen. Natera's optimistic. Since repulse of a portion of his army, which attacked a strongly fortified federal position last Wednesday, he had an unbroken series of successes.

MOORS AMBUSH FRENCH TROOPS

Paris, June 15.—Eleven soldiers were killed and twenty-six wounded in a battle with rebellious natives near Rabat, Morocco, according to dispatches. Two French columns, under Col. Henri and Col. Baumgarten, were ambushed and attacked by tribesmen, who were beaten off after many had been killed.
